EUROPE'S AGGRESSION AN ASYLUM HORROR

El Imparcial, an Influential Journal, Discusses It.

ACTION OF GERMANY

The Bombardment of the Forts of San Carlos it Seems to Fear Is but the Preliminary Step to Other Deeds.

City of Mexico, Jan. 27.—El Imparcial, the newspaper organ of the Liberal party and a paper of great circulation, discusses the bombardment of the Venezuelan city of San Carlos under the title, "Aggressive Policy of Germany in America."

El Imparcial characterizes the bombardment as the beginning of acts of open hostility against a weak nation and says an aggressive policy against a feeble country may be understood when such country tries to take refuge in its weakness in order to violate its promises and knock the principles of international law, but there is no possible explanation when demands have been heeded and when negotiations have been begun for a satisfactory settlement.

Recent events in Venezuela have astonished the world, and especially Latin America, and the question has been asked: "Is an epoch of European aggression again to be inaugurated in America?"

The action of Germany is likely to lead to similar acts of aggression on part of European powers. The question is one of greatest delicacy and intimately concerns all nations south of the Rio Grande, although being of less importance to those countries that have established order and where civilization yields its fruits, but in any respect the matter concerns this portion of the globe which for centuries was subject to the yoke of Europe, and which now does not appear to be exempt from new perils. The solution of the problem is one of incalculable importance to the nations of this hemisphere. Mexico fortunately, by reason of its progress and the policy of its government, has placed itself at an immense distance from all peril of international difficulties. Mexican students of international affairs declare that Great Britain, when it took over British Honduras (now called Belize) and making it a crown colony violated the Monroe doctrine, which it now says it supports.

PAYMENTS BY BANKS.

A New York Institution Will Undertake Cashing of First Claims.

Washington, Jan. 27.—In addition to the offer of part of the customs of La Guayra and Porto Cabello as a guarantee, Mr. Bowen informed the powers that several New York banks had expressed their willingness to undertake the payment for the first claims demanded by the powers upon the basis of such guarantee. Mr. Bowen did not say whether he had made a definite arrangement with any particular banks, but as soon as the powers hear of the consent of reliable houses to guarantee the payment of the first claims the blockade will be raised. This is expected to be within two or three days. In the event of this arrangement being concluded it is supposed that the customs of the two ports mentioned will be administered jointly by representatives of the powers and of the banks concerned.

FOUR MORE DEATHS.

Bubonic Plague Still Gathers in Victims in the City of Mazatlan.

Mazatlan, Jan. 27.—There were four deaths from the plague Monday. The number of patients in the lazaretto is fifty.

One new victim is Luis Cervantes, brother of the chief of police of Guadalupe, who recently started a daily paper in which he has attacked sanitary measures and physicians, and advised the use of domestic remedies only.

Antonia Loon, a school teacher, has died of the plague. Her relatives have been isolated and the house she occupied burned.

The building occupied by the artisan's society has been burned.

The entire ward known as El Cuerito has been destroyed by fire to prevent its infecting other localities.

The increase of the disease is due to the return of poor people who had sought refuge outside the city and returned here incited by hunger. Being weak they succumb readily.

PASSED IN TWENTY MINUTES.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The house made a new record in the matter of appropriation bills. The military academy bill was passed, in twenty minutes without a single word of debate. The Indian bill, which followed, was not completed, as Mr. Burton of Ohio, Republican, made a long speech on it in general criticism of the policy of the government toward Indians. The military appropriation bill carries $644,273.

FEARFUL WORK OF THE FLAMES IN A LONDON INSTITUTION.

FIFTY PEOPLE DEAD.

There Were Nearly Six Hundred Females in the Burning Annex and the Scenes Were Both Terrible and Touching.

London, Jan. 27.—Fifty insane patients were burned to death by fire at the Colney Hatch asylum this morning.

The fire occurred in the Jewish wing of the institution. The flames spread with great rapidity, and before they could be got under control five wooden buildings, including the dormitories and the doctors' apartments, were gutted. All efforts of the officials were directed to removing the insane inmates, but the latter became wild with excitement and were so panic-stricken that not only were they unable to help themselves, but greatly impeded the operations of those trying to save them. There were nearly 600 women in the burned annex by the time the fire was discovered, and most of them were safely transferred to the main building, which is uninjured. Some, however, escaped, and are still at large, rendering it difficult to ascertain the exact number of those burned to death.

Officials admit that about fifty bodies have been recovered, but it is feared the full extent of the disaster is not yet known. All victims are lunatics. Their charred remains presented a horrifying spectacle. The asylum is besieged by anxious relatives and friends, who arrived from all quarters.

Pitiable scenes were witnessed as weeping men and women left the premises after ascertaining relatives or friends had perished in the flames. The nurses had a terrible experience trying to assist the insane people, who were so panic-stricken they literally had to be driven to a place of safety. The inflammable premises almost immediately became a furnace; nothing was left standing. The corrugated iron roofs, dormitories and bedsteads of the patients were melted by the intense heat. Some lunatics were burned in their beds, and the charred remains of others were found huddled together in corners, while groups of partially consumed bodies on the site of the corridors showed many persons had lost their lives and sacrificed those of others in the frantic efforts to force a passage through the flames to the main building.

Latest estimate places the number of deaths at fifty-two. All were women.

STATE ELKS.

They Meet at Dallas With Delegates from a Number of Cities.

Dallas, Jan. 27.—The lodges of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks are in session in this city. Grand Exalted Ruler Cronk of Omaha called the meeting to order and a goodly number of delegates were in attendance.

The purpose of the meeting is to form a state organization. Texas has thirty-seven subordinate lodges and last year led all the states in the number of new charters granted. The meetings are being held in the elegant building of the local lodge, which is beautifully decorated. Dallas lodge has 500 members. The programme includes a banquet with 300 at the Oriental hotel.

PAGE CHOSEN.

He Is to Be Consulting Architect of the Texas Building at St. Louis.

Austin, Jan. 27.—The executive committee of the Texas World's fair commission decided to employ Chas. H. Page, Jr., of Austin, as consulting architect to erect the Texas building. The committee also decided to offer silver and bronze medals for the three best specimens of agriculture, horticulture and vineyard products grown in Texas for state's exhibit at the fair.

Practically Unanimous.

Montgomery, Ala., Jan. 27.—By practically a unanimous vote the legislative re-elected Senator Pettus. Each house balloted separately.

COMMUTED TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

Washington, Jan. 27.—The president has commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence pronounced against Geo. Barclay and James Brumwell, who were convicted of murder in Oklahoma and sentenced to be hanged Feb. 12. In the case of Homer Bird, convicted of murder in Alaska, the president has declined to interfere and he will be hanged within a few weeks.

BRYAN, TEXAS, JAN. 28, 1903

EXPAND GONZALES MILL.

Will Be Increased From 5000 Spindles to 12,000 Owing to Success of the Enterprise.

The following special from yesterday's Galveston News shows that the people of Gonzales, Texas, think of their investment in a cotton mill, and should put the Bryan people to thinking seriously about getting to work and doing something:

Houston, Tex., Jan. 26.—Mr. R. S. Dilworth and Judge W. M. Fly of Gonzales are in the city for a couple of days at the Rice Hotel. The main object of their visit here is to complete arrangements for the enlargement of the Gonzales cotton mill to nearly three times its present capacity. They have been operating a cotton mill of 5000 spindles for some time. It has proven such a success that the company decided to make the enlargement. After a long conference with Architect H. C. Cooke they decided upon the plan and it will be enlarged to 12,000 spindles. Mr. Dilworth is the leading spirit in the company and after having given the small mill a thorough test, as a money maker, they decided to make the conversion of the smaller. They have found it to be a paying business in this section where they can deal with and control the labor without molestation. It will be recalled that Orange, within the month, closed a contract for a cotton mill to be built there. The business men gave the outside capital the most liberal treatment in encouragement of the movement to erect a cotton mill there.

Russell is not the only Texas Congressman who has served his congressional apprenticeship by going up against the stone wall of pension legislation. The shade of poor Buck Kilgore should remind him of its absolute futility. This generation, nor the one to follow, will hardly see the end of pensions granted by Congress to the supposed veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic. Pensions have been granted to soldiers "dead and turned to clay," and to bounty jumpers and coffee coolers who never heard the crack of a musket in the firing line. President Grant in his first message to Congress in 1868 declared that the pension appropriation could never pass the $10,000,000 mark. Years ago it was swallowing $150,000,000 and "the cry is still they come!" We admire Congressman Russell's nerve and his patriotism, but he is wasting his breath against a north—Bonham Favorite.

Another member whose name reporter could not ascertain, reported similar experience and said he would never plant any but early corn. He can save it alright by "high-living" the weevil.

POULTRY—Mr. J. B. Mike, being on the program for discussion of "Poultry for Profit," made an interesting talk. He said there are several methods of growing poultry for profit, but he would confine himself to the view-point veteran, and improves in his ability to create sensations, he will set the world agog yet. Mr. Higgs told about the profits of the business from the standpoint of both the producer and the dealer, and gave away some secrets of the business. He had orders for 30,000 pounds of turkeys in the single month of December at paying prices.

SELLING BY THE POUND.—Mr. Higgs made such an impression about the advantage to be gained by the farmer by selling his poultry and other products by the pound, that he started many others to giving their experience along this line.

Prof. Robt. Smith of A. & M. College, a Brazos bottom planter, F. A. Capps, Mark Wilcox, T. R. Battie and others related experience of very recent date showing the great losses sustained by farmers by following the old style of selling by the head. Enough was said along this line to utterly astonish any one who, like this reporter, was not "up" on this subject. There is not a farmer in Brazos county who would miss a meeting of the farmers' institute if he had any conception of the things told at this meeting that would redound to his interest in dollars and cents if he would hear and profit by them.

F. A. Capps told how they sell poultry in eastern states, and how much money passes into the hands of the farmers on account of it. He saw a car loaded with poultry in one day—"chicken day"—at a whistle station in Tennessee where there was a single store. The wife of a friend of his there who had 4000 acres of land, sold lots of timber and was well-to-do, living on the best to be had, told him that she paid every cent of the family grocery bill from year-end to year-end with her poultry and eggs.

Prof. Dunlap of Kurten made some interesting remarks about market conditions.

Mr. Brewington delivered a splendid essay on dairying, and illustrated the absolutely inexpensive method he uses to keep milk sweet in warm weather, showing an instrument he uses.

Judge A. G. Board talked to the institute a few minutes about the importance of punctuality and regularity in attendance of institute by its members. He said he positively would not belong to an institution and not attend its meetings. He talked to the point, and good and strong along this line.

A plan was suggested of holding these meetings in the country, alternating with meetings in town, and everyone present agreed that it was necessary to adopt this plan to work up the right interest. After discussion, it was agreed to hold open invitations to country communities to invite the institute to meet with them.

The program was but half completed.

The remaining subjects will be the program for next meeting, to-wit:

Farm Orchard—E. J. Kyle.

Ground Peas and Sweet Potatoes—W. L. Edge.

Hog Raising—S. H. Higgs.

Irish Potatoes—E. C. Green.

Public Roads—A. G. Board.

Report of Seed Committee—Mc-

Duff Simpson.

Rice By-Products—H. H. Harrington.

On motion the hour of meeting was changed from 2 p. m. to 10 a. m., to continue over into the afternoon.

The Institute adjourned to meet next Saturday at the court house at 10 o'clock a. m. Webb Howell, Secretary.

OPPOSED BY MORGAN.

Senator from Alabama Questioned Credentials of Herran.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Senator Morgan, chairman of the interoceanic committee, offered in the senate a resolution questioning the credentials of Thomas Herran, minister of Colombia, who recently signed with Secretary Hay the isthmian canal treaty. The resolution was considered by the senate in executive session, which lasted two hours.

Senator Morgan spoke in support of his resolution, contending that the Colombian government is practically in the hands of a dictator. He said that the Colombian congress had not been in session for three or four years, and insisted that this was vital for the reason, that under the constitution of Colombia, no power was vested in any authority except the congress of the country to enter into a contract affecting the treasury as the canal session does.

Senators Lodge, Foraker, Culom, Hanna and Bacon spoke briefly, most of them simply urging the reference of the question to the committee on foreign relations. They did not enter into the discussion of the general question at issue beyond saying that to adopt the resolution would be to impeach the character of our treaty making officials to offend the government of Colombia. A motion was made to refer the resolution to the foreign relations committee. No one except Senator Morgan opposed the reference of the resolution to the foreign relations committee, and it was so ordered.

OMNIBUS BILL.

Mr. QUAY MADE AN UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPT TO HAVE A VOTE TAKEN.

Washington, Jan. 27.—In the senate

Mr. Quay, in charge of the omnibus statehood bill, insisted on its consideration to the exclusion of other business. When Senator Platt of New York, attempted to call up a committee report providing for the printing of a document Mr. Quay objected.

Mr. Hale thereupon declared that

Mr. Quay was confiscating the time of the senate. The letter replied calmly that this could be obviated by allowing a vote on the statehood bill.

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was passed. The Lodge amendment, providing for a reorganization of the service, was ruled out of order and a debate thereby cut off.

The credentials of Mr. Alger, recently elected senator from Michigan and Mr. Kittredge, re-elected senator from South Dakota, was presented and the oath of office was administered to them.

Shortly before adjournment the statehood bill was again taken up and Mr. Foraker, having it in charge in the absence of Mr. Quay, yielded for the passage of a house bill making an appropriation for the suppression and to prevent the spread of contagious and infectious diseases of livestock.

Liquor Seller Bill.

Austin, Jan. 27.—A bill by Senator Stafford provides that a liquor seller must make affidavit that he has not violated any of the stipulations of his bond when application is made for a renewal of license. Among the several things which he is required to make affidavit that he has not permitted are that no minor has entered his saloon; that no gaming has been conducted and that no lewd women have been allowed in the place, etc. The bill is said to have the backing of the saloon and liquor interests of the state.

Building Strike at Dallas.

Dallas, Jan. 27.—Owing to the refusal of the Builders' Exchange to longer recognize cards issued by the Building Trades Council work has stopped on a number of buildings. The trouble arose over the demand of plumbers for $5 per day. H. W. Steinbiss, secretary and treasurer of the national Building Trades Council, addressed the carpenters and plumbers Monday night and was enthusiastically cheered.

Unknown Man Murdered.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 27.—A murdered man was found lying in the dry channel of the Rio Grande. There is no clue to the murderer nor has the corpse been identified. The body was lying just across the boundary line and the Mexican authorities have charge of the case.

Young Man's Skull Crushed.

Milano, Tex., Jan. 27.—Aldine Beard, a young man about nineteen years of age, was found prostrate in the road by a crowd who were returning from a meeting in progress here. He had also been in attendance. On examination his skull was found crushed.

Strike Settled.

Beaumont, Tex., Jan. 27.—The differences between the electrical workers and their employees have been adjusted. The inside men demanded $4 per day, but compromised on $3.50.

HOUSE REGULATIONS.

Members Must Wear Their Hats Not Indulge in Smoking.
Austin, Jan. 27.—Mr. Brown of Falls in the house Monday called attention to the rules forbidding any member to wear his hat or smoke in the house during a session. The speaker said he would have the rule enforced.

Mr. Duff offered a privileged resolution that the sergeant-at-arms have printed cards of invitation for the use of members and that pending the printing of the cards the rule governing the admission of the public to the floor should be held in abeyance.

Mr. Moran made a point of order that the resolution should be referred to the committee on rules. The chair overruled the motion. The resolution was adopted by vote of 81 to 16, and the speaker stated that the doors would be thrown open to the public until cards of invitation were printed.

Reporters, however, have the right to be present.

Mr. Seabury presented a concurrent resolution providing for printing 300 copies of the legislative manual for the use of the members of senate and house. It was adopted.

The report of the contingent expenses committee, favorable to the appointment of two additional porters, was adopted.

Mr. Nelms requested that the regular order of business be suspended and house bill No. 50 be taken up. The request was granted and the speaker laid the bill before the house. It provides for exempting dentists from an annual occupation tax, with Mr. Hendrick's to include lawyers in the exemption pending.

Mr. Stollenwerck offered a substitute for the amendment, which he claimed was not properly included in the caption. He vigorously urged that lawyers be exempt from the occupation tax.

Mr. Napier moved to reconsider the vote on the amendment, and a motion to table the motion to reconsider was adopted after a call of the roll by a vote of 60 to 35.

Mr. Bolin offered an amendment to strike out the word "lawyers" wherever it appeared in the bill.

Mr. Hancock made a point of order that the question had been finally decided (which was sustained by the speaker).

Mr. Weinert offered an amendment exempting merchants from any occupation tax, and spoke for a few minutes in support of his amendment.

Before any action had been taken by the house on the amendment an adjournment was ordered until Tuesday.

LEE AND LINCOLN,

Eloquent Eulogies Pronounced on Them and Jefferson Davis.

New York, Jan. 27.—The thirteenth annual banquet of the Confederate Veteran camp of New York held Monday night at the Waldorf-Astoria, was made memorable by eloquent eulogies of the great figures of the south and the north during the civil war, declared by men who themselves had fought in the armies opposing each other. Francis Adams of Massachusetts, a soldier of the Union, responded to the toast of Robert E. Lee, and Colonel Henry Watterson, a soldier of the Confederacy, paid tribute to the character of Abraham Lincoln. The third toast, to Jefferson Davis, was responded to by William Hepburn, Russell formerly of Missouri, and now commissioner of accounts of New York city. Upwards of 500 comrades of the camp and their guests were present and the presence of many women lent brilliancy to the banquet.

Commander Henry E. Owen presided, with Mayor Low at his right and Colonel Watterson at his left.

The opening toast, to "The President and Army and Navy of the United States, a prince among the rulers of the world, but the servant of a free people," was drunk standing amid great applause, the orchestra rendering "Hail Columbia."

This was followed by the toast to General Lee:

"Nature made him and then broke the mould."

This was succeeded by the rendering of the "Bonnie Blue Flag," and songs of antebellum days by Mrs. Hollingsworth Watkins, formerly of Louisiana.

In responding to the toast to Abraham Lincoln: "He was not for an age but for all time," Colonel Henry Watterson said high tribute to the late president.

Mr. Russell in replying to the toast "Jefferson Davis" made an eloquent address.

The final toast of the evening was to "The silent brigade," all rising and a bugle sounding taps.

PRACTICALLY CONCEDED.

Regularity of Election of Senator Teller Is Virtually Admitted.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 27.—The regularity of the election of U. S. Senator Teller has been practically conceded by the Republican senators, who Monday abandoned the separate organization which they maintained all last week and returned to the senate chamber, where the Democratic majority has been in continuous session since last Monday.

Lieutenant Governor Haggard shook hands with the Democratic president pro tem, Senator Adams, who had presided during his absence last week, and resumed the chair. The senate then adjourned until Thursday afternoon.

The Republican officers of the house of representatives reconsidered the Democratic senate as the regular organization by receiving from its secretary the emergency appropriation bill which it passed last week. A motion was made by Representative Freewen, a Wolcott member, to reconsider the adverse action on the report for the expulsion of all the Araphoe Democratic members, but it was defeated.

Governor Peabody said Monday that he knew no reason why he should sign a certificate of Senator Teller's election.
